

GREATER NEW ORLEANS EXECUTIVES ASSOCIATION

WEEKLY BULLETIN

January 13, 2015

NEW IEA AMBASSADOR BRIAN GREFFENIUS

The IEA "Member News" newsletter is published and e-mailed to IEA members around the 20th of each month. The newsletter is sent to you personally from Director@ieaweb.com to the e-mail address that you have listed on the IEA website in your chapter database. The newsletter includes chapter updates, lists new members, and features timely articles and information geared toward executive association members and executive directors.

We are always looking for articles on general topics that would be of interest to the membership, top executives and key decision makers representing over 5,000 companies worldwide. You can submit your articles to Director@ieaweb.com (deadline is the 15th of the month). Include your short bio, picture and avoid just promoting your company in the article.

If you are not receiving the newsletter, check that your e-mail address on the website is accurate. If it needs to be updated your Executive Director can do that for you. You will also want to add Director@ieaweb.com to your contact list so that the e-mail does not go into your spam folder.

PROGRAM FOR JANUARY 6, 2015 "OPEN HOUSE/VISITATION" WITH PETER SATHER, KID GLOVES

Yesterday we were pleased to visit with Peter Sather, Kid Gloves at his place of business located on South Galvez. We had 38 members in attendance and the food was terrific!

To put it simply, you can be comfortable knowing that your beautiful furniture and accessories are being handled with "Kid Gloves."
