

GREATER NEW ORLEANS EXECUTIVES ASSOCIATION

WEEKLY BULLETIN

January 5, 2016

NOTE FROM PROGRAM CHAIRMAN CHARLIE ESHELMAN

If anyone would like to see a particular style of programming or has any suggestions for speakers, please feel free to contact me at ceshleman@gillis.com or Susan at susan@gnoea.com. This is a way to provide the members with the type of speakers they find interesting.

PROGRAM FOR JANUARY 5, 2016 EDWARD HAROLD, FISHER & PHILLIPS, LLP

Ed Harold is a partner in the New Orleans office and chair of the firm's Retail Industry Practice Group. His practice is primarily devoted to employment litigation in both state and federal court in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama and counseling employers to avoid litigation.

Throughout his career, he has spent significant time and attention assisting employers in managing employee attendance and leave issues.

Fisher & Phillips, LLP are national and local, with attorneys admitted in just about every U.S. jurisdiction. They represent a wide range of public and private employers. Their clients include employers in the agriculture, automotive manufacturing, automobile dealership, banking, broadcasting, and wholesale and distribution industries, as well as state and local government entities, non-profit organizations, schools, colleges and universities.

We wish to thank Ed for taking time to visit with our association!
