PROGRAM FOR SEPTEMBER 20, 2016 ALLAN BISSINGER ELECTRICAL SALES CORPORATION

Electrical Sales Corporation was founded in 1949 by Roger Bissinger and the initial focus of the business was off shore paging systems.

In 1975 Roger's son, Allan, joined Electrical Sales Corporation. Like Roger, Allan earned a degree in Electrical Engineering from Auburn University and worked diligently to learn all aspects of the business. In 1992 Allan took over as President of the company while Roger continued on as Chairman.

Today, with over 60 years of experience, Electrical Sales Corporation offers its customers the latest in telecommunications. As always, Electrical Sales Corporation manages their customers' local and long distance service through their close relationships with most local and national vendors. Though much has changed over its history, the core philosophy has not: "Providing Peace of Mind in Telecommunications."

One of the areas that Allan & Brandon spoke on was the IP-based telephony systems which are transforming the way organizations operate with features and functionality that go beyond voice calls and into the heart of improving business processes. An IP platform designed specifically for converged voice and data is essential for effectively delivering today's advanced unified communications (UC) applications.

We wish to thank Allan and Brandon for a very informative program.
